UPCOMING SPECIAL EVENT!

The tap legend, Tony Coppola is coming to On Stage! This Special Event is open for registration for ages 9 & up and is open to dancers not currently enrolled at On Stage. So, hurry to hold your spot!

With long-standing national recognition as a tap dance virtuoso, All-American gymnast, master dance teacher, and professional percussionist, Tony Coppola is in high demand as a performer, choreographer and master instructor.

Tony began his performing career as a dancer for Donnie and Marie, touring with the Osmonds for several years. His television choreographic credits include commercials for McDonalds, Aramis cologne, Autolite autoparts, as well as the Superstars of Gymnastics for USA TV network, and John Tesh Live at Redrocks for PBS. He choreographed the World Gold Gymnastics tour starring Nadia Comaneci and a cast of Olympic medalists and Hollywood dancers. *Tony was honored to have a Capezio tap dance shoe named after him. Tony's music theatre credits include the lead role in GEORGE M and choreographer role in productions of WEST SIDE STORY, CHICAGO, TOMMY, SEVEN BRIDES FOR SEVEN BROTHERS, KISS ME KATE and many others.

He currently teaches tap at the Theatre Arts Preparatory School in Las Vegas
